What's New

After an exhaustive nine month search, effective May 1, 2008, Many Nations awarded the Many Nations Multi-Employer Pension Plan service contract to Industrial Alliance. Through the marketing process, Industrial Alliance became the clear leader through their willingness to adapt their systems, service practices and marketing. Industrial Alliance came up with innovative solutions to enhance the Plan for Many Nations' Indigenous groups and their participating members. They clearly demonstrated a very customer-focused approach that works well with Many Nations Customer Service Commitment.

What Are the Benefits of Being a Member in the Plan?

As a Member of the 1st and largest Multi Employer Pension Plan in Canada this Plan combines over 160 First Nations Organizations, coast to coast, large and small, with assets totaling over $92 million. This growing value translates into economic power resulting in more competitive pricing - we pass the savings on to “YOU”. Other unique features include:

- The Plan is a defined contribution plan offering employees a wide variety of “no load” investments.
- Many Nations Pension Committee assumes the fiduciary obligations for overseeing and administering the Pension Plan in accordance with legislation set out by Canada Customs and Revenue Agency (CCRA) and by the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (OSFI).
- Many Nations Multi Employer Pension Plan follows all rules and regulations required in the new CAPSA Guidelines.
- Many Nations Pension Committee Newsletters are provided to each Member semi-annually that includes tips, education and important information that is relevant to you.
- Regular on-site service provided by your Many Nations Service Representative.
- Customer Service Support from Many Nations Head Office. Toll free 1 (800) number providing 24 hour turn around on all client services calls.
- On site employee meetings based on your educational needs – Regional Meetings are available.
- “We Care” When your family is in crisis, when you have lost a loved one, when you are reaching retirement, we are dedicated to finding the solutions for you.
